

ILA

80TH BIENNIAL CONFERENCE
19-24 JUNE, LISBON

19 – 24 June 2022

Altis Grand Hotel
Lisbon, Portugal

INTERNATIONAL LAW: OUR COMMON GOOD

The Portuguese Branch of the International Law Association (ILA) is hosting the 80th Biennial Law Conference, taking place in Lisbon, Portugal from 19 - 24 June 2022 at the Altis Grand Hotel.

The general theme of the conference is “International Law: our common good” and will provide a forum to address and discuss a range of challenging questions related to the issues of International Law through both the public and private international law lens.

Additionally, the conference will offer a myriad of opportunities for discussions on topics covered within the ILA Committees and Study Groups and give them space to advance their work, as well as network with the leading international law community for the study, clarification and development of International Law.
